Welcome to the opening day of the elk hunt!

Ravnberga jaktlag · 2025-09-01

1. Assembly
Assemble at the hunting cabin at 06:30. The hunt leader will go through safety procedures, stand allocation and radio discipline before everyone moves out to their stands.

2. Hunt leader
Bertil Åkerlund is responsible for stand allocation, the safety briefing, radio discipline and debriefing once the drive has ended.

3. Stand allocation
Stand 1 – Gustav Falkenswärd
Stand 2 – Charlotte Falkenswärd
Stand 3 – Elias Ekenstierna
Stand 4 – Rutger Molin
Stand 5 – Bertil Åkerlund
Gamekeeper / free to roam – Torbjörn Ek

4. Safety procedures
All participants must wear high-visibility clothing and an activated positioning device during the drive. Participants may leave their assigned stand only for safety reasons or after contacting the hunt leader. Radio silence applies while the drive is in progress, except for urgent safety messages.

5. Weapons and ammunition

Participant	Weapon	Ammunition
Gustav Falkenswärd	Rifle, .30-06 Springfield	Factory-loaded
Charlotte Falkenswärd	Rifle, .308 Winchester	Factory-loaded
Elias Ekenstierna	Rifle, .270 Winchester	Factory-loaded
Rutger Molin	Rifle, .30-06 Springfield	Handloaded
Bertil Åkerlund	Rifle, .308 Winchester	Handloaded
Torbjörn Ek	Rifle, .308 Winchester	Factory-loaded

6. Notes

Torbjörn Ek is not covered by the fixed stand allocation but moves freely within the area in his capacity as gamekeeper. All participants are responsible for ensuring that the ammunition declared matches the ammunition carried at assembly.

7. Debriefing

Everyone reassembles at the hunting cabin once the drive has ended. All participants must then report any shots fired, observations, departures from their stand and any technical problems with their positioning device.

Hunt leader Bertil Åkerlund
Ravnberga jaktlag